MICHAEL W. DOBBINS
CLERK, U.S. DISTRICT COURT

vs.

KEVIN GILSON, Warden,
Respondent.

No. 08 C 0616

The Honorable
Matthew F. Kennelly,
Judge Presiding.

MOTION FOR EXTENSION OF TIME TO FILE OR OTHERWISE PLEAD

Before this Honorable Court comes now pro-se petitioner, Joseph MAX, seeking ORDER for AN Extension of Time to file or Otherwise Plead in response to respondent's Motion To Dismiss; filed by said respondent on April 30, 2008. And, AS REASONS THEREFOR petitioner offers the following:

- 1) Petitioner is not a lawyer but a pro-se litigant and as such is only vaguely familiar in jurisprudence and the mechanics of law.
- 2) The amount of time allotted an inmate to visit the institutional law library, for research purposes, is restricted because of security concerns, the actual hours the library is open and, the number of inmates requesting the opportunity to attend.

- 3.) That the respondent has raised matters of law that petitioner was not aware of and he must be accorded the time necessary to research such matters in order to respond appropriately in his defense.
- 4.) That this request is not made in an attempt to delay these proceedings as petitioner is eager to present argument to support the claims he has made on the issues presented in his petition for Habeas Corpus relief.
- 5.) That petitioner requests this honorable Court grant him an Extension of Time up to and including the date of June 30, 2008.

Respectfully Submitted,

Mr. Joseph Max
